

Romanian-French MBA Program

le cnam
école management & société

Expand your Horizons HR's Role in Strategic Change

Thursday, November 26, 2015, 17:00, Conference room: 4108, Calea Griviței 2-2A, ASE
Bucharest

Guest speaker: Mugur Tolici

When: Thursday, November 26, 2015, 17:00-19:00

- ✓ 17.00-18.00: Guest speaker – Mugur TOLICI
- ✓ 18.00-19:00, Business talks / Networking

Who: Mugur TOLICI, Director of Human Resources Department–
NATIONAL BANK OF ROMANIA

What: HR's Role in Strategic Change

Economist by education, Mr Mugur Tolici has gained a significant experience in central banking activities, during the 21 years career in the National Bank of Romania, in various areas: Monetary policy, Economic research, Cash, Human resources.

During his career, he performed as Head of Monetary Policy Division, Adviser to the Deputy Governor, Head of the Governor's Office, Deputy Director of Cash Dept. and HR Director.

In his last capacity he led a major transformation project aimed at creating and implementing a people management system based on the best HR practices and ready to address the challenges of a continuously changing environment.

Mr. Tolici holds a degree in Banking and Finance, and a PhD in Economics. He graduated the Pew Economic Freedom Fellows Program at Georgetown University, School of Foreign Service, in Washington DC, and he lectures at the Bucharest University of Economic Studies (ASE) and National School for Political Studies and Public Administration (SNSPA).