

Romanian-French MBA Program

le cnam
école management & société

Ion Ionascu

Full Professor, The Bucharest University of Economic Studies

Education

- Ph.D. in Economics, The Bucharest University of Economic Studies (1997)
- Master in International Management, University of Social Sciences (1992)
- Accounting and Finance Bachelor, The Bucharest University of Economic Studies (1988)

Research Areas

- Application of IFRS in Romania and other emerging economies;
- Accounting theory and epistemology;
- Accounting history

Career

- University Professor of Accounting, Department of Accounting and Auditing, University of Economic Studies (ASE) Bucharest
- Director of the Centre for Accounting and Management Information Systems (CAMIS) at ASE Bucharest. Educated at ASE Bucharest in finance and accounting and University of Toulouse (Diplome International de Management).
- Varied teaching experience at undergraduate, MBA and doctoral school level (Financial accounting, Reporting under IFRS, Managerial accounting and control, Accounting epistemology). Supervision of PhD students.
- Director and member of several research grants and author of various articles published in national and international journals such as Accounting in Europe, Journal of Accounting and Management Information Systems and Audit Financiar.
- Member of Romanian professional accountant bodies (CECCAR and CAFR) and member of several scientific committees of academic journals and conferences in accounting.