

Romanian-French MBA Program

le cnam
école management & société

Ramona Ștefania Igreț

Assistant Professor, The Bucharest University of Economic Studies

Education

- EDU-RES Master, The Bucharest University of Economic Studies (2015)
- Ph.D. in Management, The Bucharest University of Economic Studies (2011)
- Master in Management consultancy and business development, The Bucharest University of Economic Studies (2007)
- Bachelor in Management, The Bucharest University of Economic Studies (2005)

Research Areas

- Strategic HR management
- Career counselling
- Performance management
- Human resources motivation

Career

Ramona Ștefania Igreț is a professor of Human Resources Management. She has been teaching in the Faculty of Management, the Bucharest University of Economic Studies (ASE) since 2006, and has several years of business experience in management consultancy. She obtained a Ph.D. in Economics at ASE and her area of expertise includes strategic HR management, career counselling, performance management, human resources motivation, European funded projects management. She was an expert and trainer under different projects financed by European Social Fund in the field of human resources, higher education management, healthcare, gender equality, public relations. Her business experience is related to banking operations, management consultancy in the field of healthcare, business process analysing, career counselling and HR training.